Julia Onslow-Cole has joined PricewaterhouseCoopers Legal LLP as a partner and UK head of global immigration. The appointment of Julia Onslow-Cole is part of the firm's overall strategy to expand its UK immigration services globally.

Julia Onslow-Cole joins with ten legal professionals, including highly-rated partner Nadine Owen. In the words of the recently published Chambers and Partners, a leading legal directory, the arrival of Julia and Nadine has 'catapulted the PricewaterhouseCoopers Legal practice into the consciousness of market observers'. The now 20-strong team will drive forward the firm's immigration offering, working with the PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP expatriate tax and global mobility practice.

Julia Onslow-Cole, partner, PricewaterhouseCoopers Legal LLP, said:

"We are seeing the most radical change to the immigration system in recent times that not only impacts here in the UK, but also internationally. I look forward to building upon existing expertise and linking in with PricewaterhouseCoopers established international tax and mobility teams, enabling the PricewaterhouseCoopers network to provide multi-disciplinary solutions for our clients."

Julia brings over 20 years of experience and is an expert in her field. She is co-editor of several leading textbooks on immigration law and currently represents the International Bar Association as a core stakeholder to the Border and Immigration Agency. In 2005 Julia was appointed a member of the Advisory Board to the UK Minister on Naturalisation and Immigration.

Leon Flavell, senior partner PricewaterhouseCoopers Legal LLP, commented:

"Julia brings with her a unique blend of expertise and thought leadership in the area of legal immigration affairs. She will be an invaluable asset in driving forward our immigration practice in collaboration with the expertise of our human resource specialists."
